BIOGRAPHY

Yamazaki is a Hungarian composer and artist based in Budapest who writes primarily in Japanese.

He began studying Japanese in secondary school and has written music since childhood, drawn early to the work of Yoko Kanno and Kenji Kawai. After fifteen years running an IT company, he returned to composition full-time. His music moves between synth-rock, alternative pop, city pop, and dark R&B, written in Japanese and English.

He performs as a wolf, in costume on stage and as an avatar in virtual reality. The character has been with him since he was fifteen and draws on the Shinto ookami, the wolf as messenger and protector. His first concert took place not in a physical venue but in VR; he has since performed at Furity, the largest furry convention held in virtual reality, and at VKET, the largest event on VRChat.

Hanei (繁荣) was mixed and mastered at Saidera Mastering & Recording in Harajuku, Tokyo, and broadcast on InterFM Tokyo. In December 2025, he also appeared on RTL Hungary's biggest talent show, Csillag Születik, advancing past all four judges. He records under the trademarked name Yamazaki and releases through emuBands.
